

MS. SENIOR ANAHEIM HILLS 2011

Congratulations to Ramona Brooks, Ms. Senior Anaheim Hills 2011! Every year in May we honor a senior citizen in Anaheim Hills and their beautiful spirit of life. Through a pageant of life stories, we learn about their many hardships and joys of life in a different time. Ramona is a spirited young lady of 91 years! She came to California from Idaho when she was a small child. Her Father worked at Universal Pictures for many years and grew up in Los Angeles. She was married for 42 years and after the unexpected passing of her husband, she pulled up her bootstraps and decided that the best way to go on and be happy was to try and help someone else, and that became her calling. Every day she goes to Canyon Hills Club in Anaheim Hills and is a caretaker there. She has been a caretaker for 4 persons and currently on her 5th person. She says it has truly enriched her life! She is quite active and has many hobbies including quilting, sewing, reading, travelling, bingo and of course....shopping with her friends!
